

SEND Shared Support Session 1 – Autumn 2022

Outline

The new SEND shared support sessions aim to provide an opportunity for SENDCOs and other professionals working with children and young people with SEND to:

- Meet with Inclusion and SEND advisers
- Network and build relationships with colleagues in SEND from across Norfolk
- Learn from one another, sharing knowledge and resources
- Share challenges and solutions
- Discuss best practice
- Reflect and share experiences in a safe and supportive environment

The theme for the first session is:

Developing effective SEND Support in Norfolk:

- What is working well?
- What are the barriers?
- What helps us to overcome these?
- What else do we need to support us?

Description

- Each shared support session will have an identified key theme for discussion (delegates will be asked to suggest ideas/themes after the initial session).
- Breakout room discussions in small groups will provide an opportunity to discuss, network and share learning with colleagues.

Outcomes

Following the session, delegates will receive:

- A summary of feedback and themes from group discussions
- A list of resources and links shared during the session
