

Supporting learners with SEMH needs

Outline

This fully funded twilight session will provide settings with a range of tools to support learners with SEMH needs and an understanding of how they can access additional support from the Inclusion and SEND team.

Description

Inclusion Advisers will provide an overview of the SEMH and Transitions service and the Norfolk Steps approach. They will share key tools and resources to support learners with SEMH. There will be an opportunity to ask questions during the session.

Outcomes

Delegates will:

- Understand the role of the SEMH and Transitions team and the support the team can offer
- Know how to make a referral for advice and support
- Have access to key guidance and resources
- Have an awareness of the newly revised, evidence-based Norfolk Steps programme of support and understand how to access further support and guidance around this approach
- Know how to access additional targeted support for pupils
