

Free Reading for Pleasure CPD

Calling all primary educators! It's time to talk books, pleasure and enrich your practice!

- Are you looking to build a strong Reading for Pleasure (RfP) culture in your classroom and school?
- Do you want to deepen your knowledge of RfP pedagogy and enrich your understanding of children's literature?
- Would you like to develop your RfP practice to inspire children to become lifelong readers?
- Do you want to be part of a community of reading teachers?

If so, then join then come and join me at this brand-new Teachers' Reading Group. Over the course of the 5 sessions, you will have the chance to engage with the research behind RfP Pedagogy, audit your own skills and knowledge, and develop an area of your RfP practice that you want to improve. Plus, there will be plenty of opportunities to share your experiences and challenges with other professionals - and of course we'll talk about wonderful books!

Please commit to attending all sessions as they are designed to support you in the implementation or your RfP action plan.

To book a place, email sara.matthews@norfolk.gov.uk

17th October – online launch event: 4 pm – 5.30 pm

Subsequent sessions will be face-to-face sessions at Norfolk and Norwich Millennium Library from 4 pm – 6 pm

Session 1: 21st November

Session 4: 24th April

Session 2: 7th February

Session 5: 23rd May

Session 3: 13th March