Using Film to teach Literacy at Key Stage 3

This session explores ways in which film can be used to support the teaching of literacy at Key Stage 3.

This will include a variety of analytical and creative activities based on classic and modern film texts to support the teaching of Making and Meaning, Genre and Points of View amongst others.

Suitable film clips will be used to support areas and each delegate will receive a bag of resources to take away.

Coffee and registration will commence from 9.30.
