FINDING OUT ABOUT FINDING OUT

*“Helping children find and use good non-fiction books”
A joint SLS and Bobbie Neate INSET Course*

Thursday 9th May, 2002

Professional Development Centre—Woodside Road, Norwich

9.15 a.m.—3.30 p.m.

Cost: £95.00 (including Lunch)

Bobbie Neate is an expert on children's non-fiction and information retrieval skills. Bobbie wrote, "Finding out about finding out" a seminal work on children's experiences when tackling information books for topic work. Bobbie subsequently worked as the non-fiction editor for The Longman Book Project. She recently set up her own publishing company and combines this with lecturing at home and abroad.

Peta Jones and Robin Gregory are both Norfolk School Library Service Tutor Librarians who have taught library and information handling skills in Norfolk primary schools for the past ten years.

This course is suitable for KS2 teachers, literacy co-ordinators and primary phase teachers responsible for their school library.

Delegates will have the opportunity to see and order titles from Neate Publishing
