

INSET

NEW Arts in Education

Drama as a Medium for Integrating Reading, Writing, Speaking and Listening at

"Teaching should ensure that work in speaking and listening, reading and writing is integrated." National Curriculum for English (1999). "It would be of value to many schools to have access to materials, ideas and strategies in the imaginative implementation of the National Literacy Strategy" p79 "All out Futures" DCMS, DfEE (1999).

This course will assist teachers to use drama methodology to provide creative and engaging contexts for the teaching of literacy objectives in an integrated way. Working practically with picture books, participants will have opportunities to:

- investigate text and visual image interactively
- develop a basic understanding of key drama strategies
- actively use drama to link the heard, written and spoken word.

Course Leader: Patrice Baldwin, Adviser for the Promotion of the Arts in Schools.

Lunch and refreshments will be provided

Cost: £110.00
