Spiritual, Moral, Social and Cultural Development for Primary and Middle

A course for teachers, particularly senior managers, wishing to take a really practical hands-on approach to identifying and developing these often elusive aspects of the curriculum.

The course will include advice on defining spiritual, moral, social and cultural development in a meaningful way for your school and establishing areas of school life and curriculum in which aspects can be developed naturally.

Course members will leave with some practical materials and ideas to use in their own school.

Refreshments will be provided.

Your Course Leader will be Helen Matter.

Cost: £55.00
