Using Film to Teach Literacy at Key Stage 3

Creativity is a hot topic within literacy teaching!

This session shifts the focus of attention from looking at written texts to exploring film as a rich source of material for study, for engaging pupils' interest, and for developing their understanding of genre.

Suitable film clips will be used to support areas and each delegate will receive a bag of resources to take away.

The course will be led by a national expert in the field of media education.

Coffee and registration will commence from 9.30.
Course Leader: Melinda Derry
