Music Express: A rich curriculum resource for Key Stages 1 and 2

This is a very practical workshop in which we will explore the strengths and purpose of the curriculum resource Music Express published by A & C Black. The course will identify ways of developing a high quality music curriculum. The course is of particular value for generalist teachers and those that need more confidence in teaching music.

The course objectives are to:

- understand the full benefits and application of the curriculum resource Music Express.
- identify the issues surrounding a high quality music scheme of work.

Bring along your copy of the resource if you have one. There will be copies available for purchase at the course.

Course Leader: Maureen Hanke

Cost: £60.00
