Introduction to Key Stage 3 English and Literacy

This course is designed for colleagues who are either returning to teaching or involved in supply cover. Please note that this course is a repeat of the course that was run in September 2002.

The course objectives are to:

- give an overview of the Key Stage 3 National Strategy for English
- familiarise delegates with the Framework for teaching English: Years 7, 8 and 9
- enable delegates to interpret medium and short-term plans in line with the National Strategy
- enable delegates to be confident to plan and teach effective starters and a three-part lesson
- enable delegates to understand the principles and practice of the Literacy Progress Units.

Please ensure that this flyer is passed on to colleague(s) who are involved in providing supply cover for the school. Thank you.

Refreshments will be provided.

Course Leader: John Woodhouse and Sue Smith

Cost: £0.00

NO CHARGE for this course - funded from Standards Fund Grant.
