Partnership with Parents - Sharing Children's Learning

At this conference you will learn about a number of exciting projects in which Norfolk practitioners have been involved and listen to a renowned national speaker.

Guest Speaker, Margy Whalley, Director of Pen Green Research Base in Corby will talk about her pioneering work at the Pen Green Early Excellence Centre.

Practitioners who have recently completed their research course at Pen Green 'Involving Parents in the Children's Learning' will be reporting on their individual projects in the afternoon. There will be many examples of interesting practice. Display of exciting work from settings who have been involved in the project.

Norfolk Children's Book Centre will have an extensive supply of books for sale in the foyer throughout the day.
