Supporting the Pupils in PE - a Course for Classroom Assistants

This course is designed especially for the classroom assistant who supports a range of pupils or specific pupils in mainstream schools during Physical Education. Designed specifically at the request of headteachers and classroom assistants, the course seeks to give practical guidance and support for the classroom assistant.

By the end of the course the classroom assistant will feel more confident in supporting the needs of pupils during PE by understanding the teaching styles and strategies employed as well as progressions and practices which promote learning.

All delegates will receive an LEA certificate of attendance.

Please wear practical clothing.
Refreshments will be provided.
