Special Educational Needs

Disability Discrimination Act (DDA): Training for Headteachers/Senior Managers

This one-day course for headteachers and senior managers is offered at 4 locations. The aim is to support schools and extend thinking around the issues connected to the Disability Discrimination Act.

This course will explore:

- attitudes towards disabled people
- the requirements of the DDA
- action planning for schools with regard to the Special Educational Needs and Disability Act.

There is NO CHARGE for attending this course (funded from centrally held funds) but schools must cover supply costs.

Places are limited to one per school in the first instance.

Lunch and refreshments will be provided.

This course will be provided by trainers from Disability Equality in Education.

Cost: £0.00
