Fourth Annual Behaviour Conference: Troubled Children, Troubled Teachers

The aim of this fourth conference for senior managers, teachers and teaching assistants, from both primary and secondary phase schools, is to explore our perceptions and understanding of how mental health issues affect pupils, and adults dealing with those pupils.

The day will include keynote speakers and a variety of workshops.

The purpose of this flyer is to give advance notice of this important conference. Booking may be made now by returning the form overleaf or by visiting the website. Further details will be circulated to schools nearer the time.

Lunch and refreshments will be provided.

This conference is coordinated by the Advisory Service and the Psychological Service.

Cost: £115.00
