TRAVELWISE

The Company of Cyclists is coming to Norwich in National Bike Week with their Bike Try-Out Roadshow.

Bryan Gunn, the Sheriff of Norwich will open the event. Around 40 bikes of all types will be available for people to try out including around 10 children's bikes, city bikes and folders, tandems, recumbent bikes and bicycles for people with special needs. There is also an accessible audio-visual room showing videos and slide shows on cycling.

This event is being funded and organised jointly by Norfolk County Council, the University of East Anglia, the Norfolk and Norwich University Hospital NHS Trust and the Eaton Village and University Community Power Group.

We are arranging for supporting peripheral events, stalls and exhibitions on cycling, health benefits, safety and cycle security.

Are you trying to promote cycling to school?

Do you have any cycling-related projects you'd like to exhibit?

Would you like to bring a class along on the day?

For more information on the event go to www.companyofcyclists.com/laservices or call Alison Sayer, Travel Plan Co-ordinator at Norfolk County Council on 01603 223132, email alison.sayer.pt@norfolk.gov.uk.

If you would like to attend, please contact Alison by Friday 31st May to register your interest. This will enable us to co-ordinate times if several schools would like to come along.
