Working and Creating with Children - Painting

This session will explore the knowledge and skills that children will need to become confident at painting. It will consider what we use, how we use it, look at progression, review what we need to teach, how can we support children of all abilities, using sketchbooks etc. This course will suit experts and beginners alike and is suitable for teachers, co-ordinators, NQTs and support staff. No prior knowledge needed.

The aims of this course are to:

- review the skills that need to be taught
- consider progression and development
- look at ways of raising standards
- develop confidence, knowledge and creativity.

Course Leader: Rob Howard is the Senior Adviser for Art and Design in Cambridgeshire. He is working in a sustained professional development partnership with Norfolk LEA .
