Increasing Pupils' Rates of Progress in English

This course will revisit and build on earlier English training and show how raising more pupils' attainment by two levels across the key stage is realistic. It will build on the 'matrix' model developed in Improving Writing in 2003 - 2004 and also cover aspects of progress in reading and speaking and listening.

Audience: Head of English or a key teacher who will lead developments in the selected area with colleagues in the department.
