Managing Drug-related Incidents (Secondary)

A course for Headteachers, Deputy Headteachers, Heads of Year/pastoral staff.

This course is designed to offer practical support, techniques and strategies for dealing with any drug-related incidents that may arise.

The course objectives are:

- to outline strategies for discussing incidents with students (includes some basic interviewing/counselling techniques);
- to consider strategies/procedures for managing incidents within the context of the school's drug policy; and
- to raise awareness of external support/agencies which may be available to schools.

All participants should bring with them any resources/materials that they use and would like to discuss.

Please note that there is no charge for this course - funding from Norfolk County Council.

Course Leader: Barry Gibson

Cost: £0.00
