How Well Do You Know Your School?

AN EXCITING, INNOVATIVE INSET OPPORTUNITY FOR THE SUMMER TERM

A practical full day course to assist senior managers in their role of supporting and leading school self-review.

The course aims to develop analytical skills by raising awareness of the processes and techniques involved in school self-review. It will enable participants to gain a greater understanding of the quality of education provided in their own school.

Participants will have the opportunity to spend a morning in a large primary school, followed by an afternoon session to explore issues arising from the visit.

The course will focus on the OFSTED criteria for inspection - Leadership and Management; Teaching and Learning; Attitudes, Values and Behaviour; Care of Pupils; Partnerships; Curriculum Provision and Inclusion.

Course leaders: Ralph Cross and Tim Strugnell, Primary Advisers

This full day course will begin with an early morning briefing at the relevant Professional Development Centre.

Further details and pre-course materials will be sent out to successful applicants.

Places are strictly limited to 20 per session.

Refreshments and lunch will be provided.

Cost: £115.00
