Behaviour Management Workshop for Primary Teachers and Teaching Assistants

These one-day practical workshops are intended to give teachers and teaching assistants an intensive opportunity to examine and try out classroom behaviour management techniques. It may also be of interest to governors, for information. The day will involve participants in discussion of low level non-verbal and verbal de-escalation and intervention strategies as well as some analysis of dealing with more challenging conflict situations.

Course Objectives:

- to identify and share current behaviour management skills;
- to identify additional behaviour management skills;
- to better understand the use of low key intervention and de-escalation strategies;
- to be better equipped to deal with more challenging conflict situations.

Note: these course are repeats of those held between April 2003 and March 2004.

Lunch and refreshments will be provided.

Course Leader: Chris Davies, Adviser (Behaviour Management)

Cost: £115.00
