Understanding and Meeting the Needs of Traveller Pupils for Teaching Assistants

One in four schools in Norfolk has a Traveller pupil on roll at some time during the school year.

This half-day course is aimed at helping teaching assistants from both primary and secondary schools to:

- understand the history and culture of traditional Travellers
- appreciate how this impacts on the Traveller pupil in school
- explore practical ideas and materials to enhance the Traveller pupil's inclusion and learning.

The course may also be of interest to governors, for information.

Course Leader: Lorna Daymond, Head of the Traveller Education Service.

Refreshments will be provided.

Cost: £60.00
