

Identification and Provision twilight session

Outline

The session will provide an oversight of the importance of early and consistent identification of special educational needs at setting, local and country levels. The session will cover the purpose, use, benefits and impact of Norfolk tools to support early and consistent identification of need as part of a setting's SEND policy - INDES and IPSEF processes - and will provide support and guidance for settings around their implementation.

Description

The session will provide guidance and support around the:

- Identification of Needs Descriptors in Education Settings (INDES)
- Inclusion and Provision Self-evaluation Framework (IPSEF)
- 'Inclusion in a nutshell' document

Outcomes

Delegates will understand:

- The importance of early, consistent identification of needs
- The purpose, use, benefits, and impact of the INDES and IPSEF processes and their place in local SEND policy
- How to access and complete the INDES, IPSEF and nutshell tools
- Approaches taken in Norfolk settings to implementing these tools
- Where to find supporting resources and guidance
- How to access further advice and support if required
