

Free Reading for Pleasure CPD

Calling all primary educators! It's time to talk books, Reading for Pleasure and enrich your practice!

- Are you looking to build a strong Reading for Pleasure (RfP) culture in your classroom and school?
- Do you want to deepen your knowledge of RfP pedagogy and enrich your understanding of children's literature?
- Would you like to develop your RfP practice to inspire children to become lifelong readers?
- Do you want to be part of a community of reading teachers?

If so, then join then come and join us at our Teachers' Reading Group. Over the course of the 5 sessions, you will have the chance to engage with the research behind RfP Pedagogy, audit your own skills and knowledge, and develop an area of your RfP practice that you want to improve. Plus, there will be plenty of opportunities to share your experiences and challenges with other professionals - and of course we'll talk about wonderful books!

Please commit to attending all sessions as they are designed to support you in the implementation or your RfP action plan.

To book a place, email either Sara Matthews (sara.matthews@norfolk.gov.uk) or Fiona McDaid (fmcdaid@lpfed.org)

Sessions will generally be online via Teams. Summer sessions may take place face to face at Loddon Primary school or at a mutually convenient outdoor location! Sessions will run from 4 pm – 6 pm
