

Creating and Working with Children - Drawing

This course will:

- review the drawing skills that need to be taught
- consider progression and development
- look at ways of raising standards
- develop teachers' confidence and subject knowledge.

This session will explore the knowledge and skills that children will need to become confident at drawing. It will consider what we need to teach, how we can support children of all abilities, and aspects that could be extended, along with basic skills in a range of media. The course will be relevant to both beginners or experts and no prior knowledge is needed.

Course Leader: Rob Howard, Senior Adviser for Art and Design in Cambridgeshire. He is working in partnership with Norfolk LEA.
