To all Headteachers in Middle and High Schools

Dear Headteacher

I am writing to draw your attention to an opportunity for staff new to English teaching.

If you have appointed NQTs, or have returners to the classroom who will be teaching English in your school from September 2004, I am delighted to be able to offer places free of charge for the following training course.

Three Day Key Secondary Strategy English Training
18th – 20th July 2005, 9.30 – 3.30
Norwich Professional Development Centre

This course, which has been very successful for the last two years, is in the last week of term. We will not be in a position to provide funding to pay teachers to attend. However all course fees, venue and catering costs are being met by the secondary strategy funding.

The attached flyer outlines the proposed content and any one of our secondary strategy English Advisers would be pleased to discuss this further with any interested participant. I hope you will feel able to bring this to the attention of any appropriate personnel. It is an ideal opportunity for additional training for English teachers taking up new posts in September.

Yours faithfully

John Spradbery
Key Stage 3 Strategy Manager
