What is your school doing to help children to be healthy?

Are you baffled by the latest requirement to encourage children to make healthy food choices? Help is at hand! A free day's training is being organised by Healthy Norfolk Schools and supported by the School Fruit and Vegetable Scheme which will explore all the issues around food in schools.

Who is the training for?

All schools, whatever phase, teachers, senior managers and governors (maximum of 2 bookings per school depending on availability).

What will the training include?

Why all this concern about children's diets?

The role of schools:

- What schools can do
- What they will have to do
- How they can do it

Practical examples of what works and how this links to other school priorities.

The day will include workshops on the following topics:

- * Breakfast clubs
- * Tuckshops
- * School dinners
- * Packed lunches
- * Vending machines
- * Water in schools
- * Cookery and Growing clubs

Schools attending will receive a free Food In Schools Toolkit.

NB: These courses CANNOT be booked via the website as we have not yet developed the facility to book workshops online.
