A Guide to the New Norfolk Syllabus for Religious Education

REPEATED DUE TO POPULAR DEMAND

This full-day course will offer teachers the opportunity to find their way around the new Norfolk Syllabus in the company of the Religious Education adviser.

The structure of the syllabus will be unpicked and discussed, including its relationship both to the new National Framework and the old 1997 Norfolk Syllabus. Links will be made with the QCA units of work and suggestions for alternative ways of delivering the requirements considered.

Helpful resources will be on display throughout the course and plenty of opportunities given for question and debate.

Information:-

Unfortunately, there has been some adverse and inaccurate press coverage in relation to one of the supporting papers in the non-statutory guidance accompanying the new Norfolk Agreed Syllabus, which has delayed publication. However, courses introducing and exploring the new syllabus will go ahead. It is likely that the syllabus will be published on the web in the late summer and available in hard copy at the start of the new year. Implementation will be September 2006 but schools are free to use it as soon as it is published on the web.

PLACES ARE LIMITED (PARTICULARLY NORWICH) SO WE ADVISE PROMPT BOOKING
