Working in Partnership with Parents for Primary Schools (SEN)

This one-day workshop is intended to give headteachers, senior managers and SENCOs an opportunity to identify strengths, reflect on current practice and develop strategies for working in partnership with parents.

This course aims to:

- identify key issues in the Code of Practice and DDA which relate to working with parents
- further develop effective communication skills when working with parents
- identify sources of information and support
- identify key areas for further development.

The course will be facilitated by Norfolk Parent Partnership and include voluntary organisations and Independent Parent Supporters.

Course Leaders: Sarah Merrick and Jan Eastwood, Parent Partnership Officers
