Norfolk Regional Support Group (RSG) - Free training and networking sessions for early foreign language learning (ELL)

What is offered? Five different sessions per year are offered to give a hands-on overview of ELL resources and methodology together with a chance to network with other practitioners.

Who can attend? All involved in, or starting to become involved in, teaching languages to young learners: nursery, foundation, KS1 & KS2 class teachers; student teachers; learning support assistants; headteachers and governors.

How are sessions funded? The FREE RSG sessions are funded by the DfES and co-ordinated by the National Advisory Centre on Early Language Learning (NACELL) in support of the National Languages Strategy.

Reminder of dates! The dates and details of all sessions are also available to view on the NACELL website:

www.nacell.org.uk/regional

If you live near the Suffolk, Lincolnshire or Cambridge borders you would also be very welcome to attend their RSG meetings.

This twilight session will demonstrate some of the latest interactive whiteboard resources created to support both the non specialist and specialist teacher with story telling in the KS2/MFL classroom.

Resources will include:

BeeLingua (French and Spanish)

Rigolo

Tout le Monde

Early Start Big Books

Refreshments, networking and resource viewings from 4.00 pm.
