

Effective School Councils

Date	Time	Venue	Reference
4/7/2006	4.30 - 6.00	Norwich Professional Development Centre	6GN062
12/7/2006	4.30 - 6.00	West Norfolk Professional Development Centre	6GN063

Aims

Participants will have a clearer understanding of:

- what makes an effective school council;
- how a school council can be organised so that it offers an opportunity for all students to be actively involved in decisions;
- how to encourage diversity and inclusion on the school council.

Participants will also have an opportunity to learn from each other. Issues which may be covered include:

- getting support from senior management and other staff;
- how to encourage students to run their own meetings;
- involving students in discussing the School Development Plan;
- linking the school council to the Citizenship curriculum and Every Child Matters.

Confirmation of place will be sent, via email, nearer the date.
