

Working with Parents to Promote Healthy Eating

Date	Time	Venue	Reference
3/10/2006	4.00 - 6.00	Alderman Swindell First School, Great Yarmouth	6GN069
4/10/2006	4.00 - 6.00	Howard Infant School, Kings Lynn	6GN070

Approaches to positively involving parents with food in schools. This will be a practical session covering different ways to engage with parents on this sometimes difficult subject. There will be a particular focus on how to run a parent/child workshop.

By attending this session teachers and teaching assistants will understand what the key messages should be and will take away recipes and practical tips.

All participants will take away a copy of the free resource -'Variety is the Spice of life' which is a CD on how to run a packed lunch with parents and children.
