

Leading and Managing Effective Links with the Community

Date	Time	Venue	Reference
6/3/2007	9.00 - 4.00	Norwich Professional Development Centre	6RN022
8/3/2007	9.00 - 4.00	West Norfolk Professional Development Centre	6RN023

This course examines leadership and management issues around the maintenance and development of effective links with the community. It provides head teachers with the means to rigorously evaluate the existing links with their own community, and to develop strategies for developing productive links with external organisations to improve children's learning.

The course objectives are to:

- enable headteachers to evaluate the effectiveness of schools links with the community
- support headteachers in developing practical strategies for effective working with partners in the community for the well being of children and their families.
