

Arts in Education

Performance Poets Offering Performance and Workshops
28th February – 15th March 2006

AINSLEY BURROWS FARO Z BYRONN BAIN

Ainsley Burrows

Following previous hugely successful tours, the New Yorker is back in the spring term offering poetry performances and workshops to Secondary Schools.

"The workshop participants were enthralled"
Norwich High School for Girls

"An extremely worthwhile experience; we hope to have Ainsley back sooner rather than later."
Reepham High School.

Faro – Z (Zarmani Smith)

Has been writing and performing Hip-Hop poetry for many years. His performance style represents the rawness of the New York streets infused with the essence of his culture. His work is well informed. Faro.Z's ability to connect with any audience is rooted in his belief that all writers have the ability to transcend. He brings a message of inspiration and artistic healing to the world community. This is Faro's second visit to Norfolk schools.

Byronn Bain

Byronn has been described by noted public intellectual Cornel West as a poet who "...speaks his truths with a power we desperately need to hear."

A renaissance figure in his own right, Byronn's debut album 'Problem Child' interweaves spoken word poetry with hip hop and world music from underground artists spanning the globe. Byronn's debut visit to our schools

For bookings and further details,
Contact: Sevil Kanal/Lisa Battle
Children's Services,
The Professional Development Centre,
Woodside Road,
Norwich NR7 9QL.
Tel: 01603 433276
or email: sevil.kanal@norfolk.gov.uk

