

FREE Anti-Bullying Conferences for Children

Anti-Bullying Week - 20 November-24 November 2006

Bullying: See it. Get help. Stop it Conferences

Local opportunities to find out about good anti-bullying practice in Norfolk
Morning only events

- Monday 20 Nov - Attleborough High School - Southern Area
- Tuesday 21 Nov - Professional Development Centre, King's Lynn - Western Area
- Wednesday 22 Nov - John Innes Centre, Norwich - Central Area
- Thursday 23 Nov - Imperial Hotel, Great Yarmouth - Eastern Area
- Friday 24 Nov - South Green Park, Mattishall - Northern Area

Provisional programme: With the exception of the southern event which may be 30 minutes longer, each event starts at 10 a.m. with an introduction from the local Children's Services Area Director, followed by a drama performance on the theme of the Bystander. After a refreshment break, including squash, water, biscuits, and fruit, each area will have a presentation from children and young people on local anti-bullying initiatives. In addition, in the John Innes Centre there will be display stands from organisations which are addressing bullying issues. Apart from Attleborough as mentioned above, each conference will end at approximately 12.30 p.m.

If you wish to attend, please complete and return, preferably by email to Jean Powell, by Friday 3rd November. Confirmation of place and venue, programme and venue map will be sent to you nearer the date by email. If email is not convenient, please give return address. Priority will be given to children from Year 5 and above. Any queries, please ring Jean Powell on 01603 495121.
