

Local children's authors, Roderick Gordon and Brian Williams will be talking about their latest book, Deeper and the success of their first book, Tunnels at The Norfolk and Norwich Millennium Library on Tuesday, 3rd June at 6.30pm. Tunnels, which is suitable for teenagers, was selected by Richard and Judy for confident readers in their Children's Book Club programme in Autumn 2007. This was part of the Channel 4 promotion 'Lost for words' which was a season of campaigning programmes to get all our kids reading.

Tickets are £1 available from the joining desk on the ground floor of the library and at Waterstones, Castle St., Norwich. Numbers are limited. School discounts can be arranged.

Also, during half term, on Tuesday, 27th May at 2.30pm Steve Cole, author of the extremely popular Astrosaurs and the Cows in actions series will be in The Children's Library at Norfolk and Norwich Millennium Library. All welcome.

Please contact Elaine Simpson, or the Community Librarian Team, on 01603 774781 for further information.
