
Briefing on Leading Teachers for Gifted & Talented Education

| Date | Time | Venue |
|------------|---------------|--|
| 16/05/2007 | 16.00 – 17.00 | West Norfolk Professional Development Centre |
| 22/05/2007 | 16.00 – 17.00 | Norwich Professional Development Centre |

Context/Audience:

The 2005 White Paper Higher Standards, Better Schools for All sets support for G&T pupils clearly in the context of personalisation and provides the opportunity for National Strategies to develop a cross-phase programme focused on higher attaining, more able and G&T pupils. One of the key priorities for this is to train a leading teacher for every secondary school and every cluster/network of primary schools in the personalisation of teaching and learning for G&T pupils.

This briefing session is aimed at:-

Current G&T co-ordinators/potential leading teachers, subject leaders or senior managers with an interest in G&T education.

Objectives:

- To provide an overview of the initiative.
- To discuss the role of the Leading Teacher.
- To provide an outline of the training programme.
- To address some of the Frequently Asked Questions.

Adviser: Jan Utting
