

EASTERN REGION CONFERENCE

BUILDING ESTABLISHED LEADERSHIP IN SCHOOLS

Audience: Established Leaders working in primary, secondary and special schools

The National College for School Leadership identifies this strand of leadership as “experienced leaders who do not intend to pursue headship, including assistant and deputy headteachers”. This conference will explore ways in which the leadership of experienced Deputies and Assistant Heads can be developed, recognising the significant contribution established leaders can make to senior leadership teams.

Key note Speaker: Professor John West-Burnham, Senior Consultant, NCSL

Date: Friday 26 November 2004

Time: 9.00am – 4.00pm

Venue: NCSL Eastern Affiliated Centre
Peterhouse Technology Park, 96 Fulbourn Road, Cambridge CB1 9AH

Cost: £95.00 (including a buffet lunch)

Conference details: Professor John West-Burnham will lead the morning session. There will be a choice of workshops in the afternoon led by practitioners on topics such as “Pupil Voice”, “International Dimension”, “Leading Professional Study Groups”, “Behaviour Management” and “SLICT”.

We hope very much that this will be a stimulating and rewarding day conference which will lead to the establishment of LEA networks of established leaders. There are 70 delegate places to be allocated evenly across all 10 LEAs in the Eastern region. Places will be allocated to each LEA on a first received basis, so please book early to ensure a place.

Booking deadline: Wednesday 06 October 2004
