Resolving Conflicts in Schools conference

This conference aims to:

- help you provide evidence for the Ofsted self-evaluation form (SEF) on how your school is contributing to the five national outcomes of Every Child Matters, in particular:
 - Making a Positive Contribution
 - Staying safe
 - Being healthy
- Teach you Conflict Resolution skills
- Enable you to consider the next steps for your school

We are delighted that Lorna Farrington will be talking to us about the impact of conflict resolution skills training in the school where she was a Head. Lorna is an educational consultant who has worked with the United Nations and the Council of Europe on pupil participation.

Workshops will include:

- peer mediation
- peer support
- the role of senior management in promoting conflict resolution
- Nonviolent Communication
- Restorative Justice

The cost for up to 2 adults and 3 young people per school is £50, or FREE for committed Healthy Schools. This conference has been developed in partnership between a range of key services. Pupil involvement and participation has been the underlying theme. We believe that the conference will have the greatest impact on school practice if attended by senior managers.

Further details will be sent to you shortly. We anticipate that there will be a high demand for this conference, so to book your preliminary place, email Julie on julie.layden@norfolk.gov.uk or phone her on 01603 485999, option 4.
