

Your child and the internet

Help for parents who are concerned about their child and their use of the internet - Come and join with other parents on the evening of November 19 (6:30 - 9:30 pm) at the John Innes Conference Centre, Norwich. There will be information from Child net International, Securus, and others, and will include practical information and resources to help you understand the risks to your child and what can be done to counter the risks of 'cyber-bullying'. If you would like to book a place at this conference please see contact Heather Haycox(email: heather.haycox@norfolk.gov.uk tel: 01603 671400) or see flyer below.

Norfolk County Council

Anti-Bullying Awareness Week
19 - 23 November 2007

Parents Conference on Cyberbullying
At the John Innes Centre, Norwich
On Monday, 19th November
6.30-9.30pm

This conference is offered free of charge to raise parental awareness of cyberbullying and what you, as a parent, can do if it happens to your child.

The conference will be made up with presentations from Childnet International, Securus and include workshops from Norfolk Constabulary, local school students and schools. We want parents to engage in 'hands on' experiences.

If you would like to book a place at this conference please fill in the slip below and return it to: Heather Haycox, Secretary to Rita Adair, Anti-Bullying Alliance Eastern Regional Coordinator, The Terrapin, Hewett School Site, Norwich, Norfolk NR1 2TJ or e-mail heather.haycox@norfolk.gov.uk
