The Diana Princess of Wales Anti-bullying Award - Make the Difference

Guidance Notes and Nomination Form 2006/2007 'The Diana Memorial Award celebrates the fantastic achievements of ordinary people who do extraordinary things. Through their activities they display all the values that we should all aspire to – valour, compassion, imagination, teamwork, sacrifice, public spirit and private endeavour in equal measure'. Rt Hon. Gordon Brown

Bullying is a serious issue in our schools today and can make the experiences that young people have at school unhappy, frightening and sometimes has devastating consequences. But many young people across the UK are now doing some amazing work to tackle bullying and we would like to recognise their achievements through the Diana, Princess of Wales Anti-bullying Award.

The Diana, Princess of Wales Anti-bullying Award is given to young people who have made an outstanding contribution to tackling bullying in their schools or communities.

'It was an honour to receive it last year, but to be awarded the Diana Anti-bullying Award two years on the run, is a real privilege'. Headteacher, Arnot Community Primary School

The Award is open to all young people up to the age of 18. Organisations can nominate up to 6 individuals or a group of up to 30. This is an inclusive award and all those who meet the criteria will receive the Award.

Award Criteria

We recognise that there are various anti-bullying projects going on in schools and communities, so this nomination must provide evidence of good practice that you are proud of and that has worked to eliminate bullying in your school/community. We would therefore ask you to look at the criteria and demonstrate how your nominee(s) have met them.

- 1. Nominees have participated, led or set up an anti-bullying programme 2. Nominees have demonstrated exceptional qualities and skills.
- 3. Nominees have received training from a recognised source and have ongoing support from adults.
- 4. Evidence or testimonials that the nominees' work has improved the lives of others 5. Nominees have undertaken the activity for at least 6 months.

'When I found out I had won the award, I thought they were joking. I am really pleased. I just thought I must be doing something right to get this. We remembered what it was like to start school and wanted to help'. Carrie, Award Holder

The Award can recognise individuals . . .

Organisations can nominate up to six individual young people who have all worked on the same project

The Award can recognise groups . . .

Organisations can also nominate a group of young people as long as the following criteria are met:

- Nominators must provide evidence that every member of the group has contributed fully to the activity for which they have been nominated.
- Groups must be no larger than 30 pupils ie a class size

Additional Information

Each organisation can nominate once in every academic year. All young people nominated who meet the criteria will receive an Award. Nominations can be made through schools, colleges and organisations that work with young people.

The Diana, Princess of Wales Memorial Award considers every nomination and is responsible for the final decision on making an Award.

What will you receive for the Award?

Each individual Award Holder will receive a certificate. The organisation also receives a certificate to mark its involvement in the Award

All members of the group receive a certificate stating that they are members of the group and the group will also receive a shield to mark their achievement.

'This is a fantastic achievement for our peer mediators. I nominated them for the award and was incredibly impressed by their work and the impact it had on lunchtime and playtimes'. Deputy Headteacher, Sanford Primary School

In addition, all Award Holders and organisations will receive our newsletters and the chance to be involved in our Diana Young Ambassadors Programme. This fantastic new programme aims to develop the skills, confidence and experience of award holders to enable them to become young leaders and community entrepreneurs. Through involvement in the programme they will have the opportunity to be Ambassadors and to represent the award across the UK.

Certificates will be issued before the end of each term. The deadlines for nominations in the academic year 2006/07 are: 3 November 2006, 9 March 2007 and 22 June 2007.

How to nominate?

Form a Nominations Group

This group will choose which young person(s) to nominate for the Award. The group should be chaired by a member of the school/organisation's management team and should also include young people, as well as three or four members of staff. Also, where applicable, it should include a member of the organisation or group for which the young person has been involved.

Choose your Award Holder(s)

The nominations group needs to consider:

- how long the young person/s' activity has lasted and their personal commitment to it
- the impact of the activity on tackling bullying

What do I do next?

Complete the attached nomination form, ensure that the chair signs the nomination form and return to the Award office.

We will mail all certificates by the end of term.

'It makes us feel good about ourselves helping the less fortunate.' Award Holder: Kelly Bloomfield
