

Educational Psychology and Specialist Support (EPSS) in conjunction with other agencies

A one day conference for Primary Schools and Secondary Schools and Early Years
settings in West Norfolk

“Including Pupils with complex Needs”

Date: Friday 25th June, 2004
Time: 9:15am to 4:00pm
Venue: Ecotech Centre Swaffham

Keynote Speakers:

Tricia Barthorpe - Head of SEN Support Services, North Lincolnshire

Tricia has spoken widely on approaches to raise attainment for pupils with special educational needs, pupil tracking systems and alternative curriculum models.

Chris Darlington, Head Teacher at St Hughes Secondary School, North Lincolnshire

Chris will be sharing inclusion strategies that have been promoted successfully in schools and identifying ways of overcoming barriers to inclusion.

Workshops will cover areas such as including pupils with complex difficulties such as Autistic Spectrum Disorder; Attention Deficits; Down Syndrome and other very relevant information for primary and secondary schools and early years settings.

There will also be representatives from other agencies including Health and information stands on the work undertaken by voluntary and statutory agencies in West Norfolk.
