

Exciting Conference for all Early Years Practitioners

Involved in Daycare provision for 3+ year olds, or in Nursery, Reception and Year One Classes

First Hand Experiences: What Matters to Children

*The conference includes workshops and draws on material from the publication
First Hand Experience: what matters to children*

Led by Diane Rich and team from Rich Learning Opportunities

Barnham Broom Hotel

Tuesday 12th June 2007 – 9.15am to 3.30pm

Course Fee : £120.00 (non refundable)

Includes copy of First Hand Experience Book (worth £25)

What teachers have said about this conference held in other LA: 'This day has been total excellence and enjoyment'

'The whole idea of what matters to children in inspirational and vital to the improvement of schools'

'.. a stimulating, challenging, exciting, thought provoking and extremely enjoyable learning experience'

To book your place:

Complete slip below and send with conference fee to Janet Wright, Bignold First School, Wessex Street, Norwich, NR2 2SP
Cheques made payable to : NHMN by Wed 28th March 2007.

Please reserve ____ space(s) on Tues 12th June for First Hand Experiences : What Matters to Children.

Enclosed cheque for _____ made payable to NHMN by Wed 28th March 2007

Name (s) _____ School/Setting: _____

Address _____