

Fairy Tale House

A special event for Key Stage 1 pupils

Bridewell Museum, Norwich
8th, 9th and 10th June
10.00-12.00pm or 12.30-2.30pm

Come and join us at the Bridewell Museum in the centre of Norwich for 'Fairy Tale House'. Using fairy tale characters your pupils will explore the theme of houses and homes in the past and the present.

Your pupils will:

- make a 'Jack and Jill' well
- compare old and new domestic objects with Old Mother Hubbard
- find out about building materials with Brian the Builder
- look at rooms in the house with Hansel and Gretel

The cost of 'Fairy Tale House' is £2.00 per pupil (this includes admission to the museum).
Accompanying adults are free.

If you would like your pupils to come along to this exciting event or if you want further information then please contact Colin Hynson, Museum Education Officer, on (01603) 495891 or by e-mail at colin.hynson@norfolk.gov.uk
