

David Farmer (Tiebreak Theatre) presents

Frog Stories

Available to celebrate National Book Week in Autumn 2008!

What is it?	Storytelling and practical drama sessions for schools based on the popular 'Frog' books by Max Velthuis
Who is it for?	One year group from KS 1 (Years 1-2)
When?	Autumn '08 and Spring '09 including National Book Week (6-12 October) and National Storytelling Week (31 Jan – 7 Feb)
Why?	The programme supports the drama strand of the Primary Framework for Literacy
How much?	£125 for a half-day or £185 for a full day, plus travel expenses
How do I book?	Contact David Farmer on 01603 465973 / 0797 321 7876 Email david@dramaresource.com

The Artist

Storyteller and dramatist David Farmer (Artistic Director of Tiebreak Theatre from 1981 to 2005) is the author of best-selling book "101 Drama Games and Activities" and was a mentor in Norfolk schools for Drama for Learning and Creativity (D4LC). He has a current enhanced CRB check.

Programme

"Frog Stories" begins with a 20-minute storytelling session in Assembly to the whole school or year group concerned. This performance also includes participation through songs and drama techniques. It is followed up with one-hour practical workshops using drama games and techniques to explore the stories. Pupils have the opportunity to act out scenes and play different characters using improvisation, movement and dialogue.