

A DATE FOR YOUR DIARY!
A FREE CONFERENCE

GLOBAL THINKING, GLOBAL LINKING

An East of England Regional Conference to explore the incorporation of the Global Dimension in the Primary and Secondary School Curriculum

Presentations and Workshops from leading national experts on bringing the global dimension into the classroom, including the QCA, the British Council, the Harambee Centre, regional advisers and practitioners

Thursday 22 May 2008 10.30 – 15.30
The British Racing School, Newmarket

This event is sponsored by the DFID EEDEN Project and the British Council

To receive more details and to reserve a place, contact Geoff Scaplehorn, Coordinator of the British Council Regional Network for International Learning (RNIL) geoff@acer.ac.uk.

Please let Alison Cunningham (International Links Officer) know if you are planning to attend - 01603 223480 or alison.cunningham@norfolk.gov.uk. It may be possible to organise free transport if there is enough interest.