

What's on for schools at Great Yarmouth Museums

Autumn Term 2003

Spend Time in the Cells

Visit the Tolhouse, to find out what life was like in a Victorian prison and see how this compares with the experience of modern day inmates.

Find out how witches were treated in the seventeenth century and see what Napoleonic prisoners of war did in their spare time.

Explore the Elizabethan House museum

Visit the Elizabethan House museum to explore the home lives of the Tudors and Victorians. There is much to see and touch within this museum and we offer schools a variety of guided tours and hands on sessions with original artefacts. All our sessions are designed to support the National Curriculum and can be tailored to suit your needs. Popular sessions include:

Homes Long Ago, Washdays, Old Toys, Victorian Homes and Tudor Homes.

Special Events at the Elizabethan House Museum

October 6th - 7th Victorian Servants' Training Days

Another chance to get into role and experience life below stairs in a Victorian household. The children will help Cook and the Butler with the household chores as they try to secure a place in Mrs Palmer's prestigious training academy for domestic staff. A half day visit with directed activities designed to support KS2 Victorian Britain.

There is an extra charge of £1.50 per pupil for this event.

December 5th, 8th & 9th A Tudor Christmas Celebration

Join us for festive fun Tudor style. Help with the Christmas preparations as you explore the lives of the rich and poor in Tudor England. Decorate the house, prepare gifts and potions for your friends, and help a local pauper to gain a beggar's licence. A half day visit with directed activities designed to support KS2 Britain & the wider world in Tudor times.

There is an extra charge of £1.50 per pupil for this event.

Charges: The admission charge for school groups is £1.30 per child (£1.10 each for NCC schools). Accompanying adults are free. Schools with 25% of their students receiving free school meals will be admitted FREE OF CHARGE.

Bookings and further information contact:

Colin Stott (Education Officer). Tel: 01493 745526.

Fax: 01493 745459

E-Mail: colin.stott@norfolk.gov.uk