

Muse News

Great Yarmouth Museums - Spring 2007

Free
Museum
Admission for Schools

Free - Teacher's Family Day

Teaching staff and their families are invited to visit the Time and Tide Museum, free of charge, on Saturday the 3rd of March 2007.

Come and explore the exciting sights and sounds of this award winning museum with your family and discover what we offer to schools. Craft activities and quiz sheets will be available for children and our learning team staff will be on hand to show you the school handling collections and tell you about our popular sessions for schools.

New -The Nelson Monument & Great Yarmouth Sea Front

Coming soon:

Free teacher's resource packs for the Nelson Monument and Great Yarmouth Seafront. Packed full of images, information and ideas, the resources also give information on visits to the Nelson Museum and Time & Tide.

On Tuesday 13 March, an INSET AFTERNOON has been arranged to explore how the resources can be used. During the afternoon you will also be given the opportunity to:

- Visit and climb the monument
- Take a guided walking tour of Great Yarmouth Seafront
- Explore the Nelson Museum & Time & Tide.

Supply cover costs and free lunch provided on request.

Book now to avoid disappointment.

Special Events

What's on offer?

Events coming up include:

- ♦ Victorian Servants
- ♦ Evacuee Experience
- ♦ Seaside Special
- ♦ Tudor Times

Special event charges are £2.50 per pupil. All accompanying adults are free of charge and there are no museum admission charges.

RENAISSANCE
EAST OF ENGLAND

na NORFOLK Museums
& Archaeology Service

To reserve places on either of the above events, arrange a free preview visit or discuss your school's requirements, please contact Patricia Day: 01493 743944; e-mail patricia.day@norfolk.gov.uk.