Developing an Anti- Bullying Policy

---

Date	Time	Venue	Course Code	Event Ref.
19/02/2008	16:30 - 18:00	West Norfolk Professional Development Centre	ENHB7	B
11/03/2008	16:30 -18:00	Norwich Professional Development Centre	ENHB7	A

Course Context/Audience:

Does your anti-bullying policy need to be updated in the light of the recent DCSF Guidance (Safe to Learn: Embedding Anti-bullying Work in School)? For example does your policy incorporate guidance on dealing with cyber bullying and homophobic bullying?

All schools are required by law to have an anti-bullying policy. This twilight is aimed at supporting schools in the process of policy development whether they are reviewing their existing policy or developing a new one.

This session is appropriate for:

- Any member of staff who is involved in leading or interested in the development of the school's anti-bullying policy
- Staff from all key stages

This training supports the Emotional Health and Wellbeing strand of Healthy Schools and is free to all schools who have signed up to the Healthy Schools Programme. If you sign up and then cannot come we would expect 2 weeks notice so that we can establish whether it is viable to run the sessions.

Objectives:

In the session we will look at:

- defining what bullying is and is not
- the stages of policy development linked to DfES guidance
- a suggested structure for your policy

Course Leader/s: Rosemary Games - Healthy Schools Adviser

Rita Adair – Senior Educational Psychologist & Anti-Bullying Alliance

Co-ordinator for the Eastern Region

Phase: Primary Schools
