

TEACCH Approach to Working with People with Autism - 3-Day Seminar

Date	Time	Venue	Course Code	Event Ref.
2 nd – 4 th October 2007	09:30 - 16:00	The Crown Plaza, Nottingham	ENWC6	A

Course Context/Audience:

This course is suitable for SENCOs, teachers and teaching assistants working with children with ASD.

We are pleased to offer a limited number of funded places on this three-day non-residential course provided by the National Autistic Society. The course will be presented by Dr Gary Mesibov, Director of Division TEACCH, North Carolina and will be held on the 2nd October 2007 for three days.

This course is supported by Standards Fund.

Course fees will be paid and an allowance made for supply cover and overnight accommodation, although this may not cover the full amount.

Objectives:

The purpose of this course is to familiarise participants with autism and various approaches to working with people with autism and their families. Structured Teaching, Division TEACCH's main intervention approach will be emphasised and participants will see how it has evolved in response to the unique needs of the autistic population. Aspects of applying TEACCH techniques to classroom instruction will be highlighted.

Places are limited to one per school. Schools must have an identified need and applications must be endorsed by the school's Area Service Manager previously (Pupil Entitlement Support Officer (PESO)). Please ask your Area Service Manager PESO to send an email to michelle.steel@norfolk.gov.uk endorsing your application.

Please note: it will be the delegate's responsibility to book overnight accommodation.
