

Launch of The Vision for Children and Young People in Norfolk

On Friday 23 September 2005, at 4.15pm at The Forum in Norwich, The Norfolk Partnership for Children and Young People will launch The Vision for Children and Young People in Norfolk.

Rosalie Monbiot, as the Chair of the partnership and Lead Member at the County Council for Children's Services, will be launching the vision and highlighting the desired outcomes for children and young people in the County. Lisa Christensen, Director of Children's Services will set out some of the activities planned to deliver the vision and the outcomes. Young people and parents will then speak about how they want to be involved in developing services for the future. They will launch a recruitment drive for two panels to represent their interests, which will work with the partnership in the future.

After the formal launch there will be a chance to browse a showcase featuring projects that have been significantly led by young people before enjoying some performances out on the Millennium Plain in front of the Forum that will last through to 5.30pm.

Light refreshments will be provided.

Anyone with an interest in the future of services for children and young people in the County is welcome to attend. Please email to everychildmatterscomments@norfolk.gov.uk by 16 September if you will be attending.
